- Rebecca Reed Kantrowitz, co-chair and Joanna Masingila, co-chair, greeted the group and welcomed new member, Derrick Taylor. Members introduced themselves.
- Minutes from the January meeting were approved.
- Reed Kantrowitz gave an update on the OCR case on behalf of Abby Perer: OCR continues to review the policies, procedures, and other records that the University sent to the agency. The OCR attorneys have requested to interview a total of four University employees who have factual knowledge of the case at issue that sparked the complaint. We are preparing for those interviews now. There has been no finding or decision by OCR.
- Randi Bregman briefed the group on the Vera House White Ribbon Campaign, which runs through the month of March, and related events. Order forms for wristbands and other items were distributed.
- Samantha Skaller, Joyce La Londe, Rachel Johnson, and Amy Quichiz presented via PowerPoint on their suggestions for collaboration among students, the Task Force and University administration regarding sexual and relationship violence issues, followed by Q&A. All Task Force members were given the PowerPoint electronically.
- Katelyn Cowen briefed the group on It's on Us Week of Action and Take Back the Night. Task Force members will attend the event and help serve beverages to attendees.

- Meeting adjourned at 5:00 pm -
